Jack's Early Days

Jack was born in Fort Worth, Texas on September 9, 1942 and moved to Houston when he was 14 years old. In Houston he grew into a private businessman. At one time during the 70's boom he had a swimming pool company, a tennis court company and a landscaping company. His focus was on commercial work and he was soon contracted to completely design and install many of the new neighborhood recreation centers. With the 80's economic bust he moved into the insurance business for 4 or 5 years. Jack can tell many interesting stories about the 25 or so salesmen he had selling insurance for him in Kansas. In the 90s Jack retired and shuffleboard was in his future.

Getting Started in Shuffleboard

Jack was first introduced to shuffleboard at Frank's off Hwy 1960 in North Houston. As a beginner, playing with Flynt Preston and Bill Rice he says he was quickly hooked on the game but was consistently the worst player in the house and losing most money games to the locals. He then made one of his best decisions and asked Diana Hagen to help them with their game. After several lessons, their games improved and they started winning. Jack says the other players soon quit playing them for money.

Now that Jack was hooked on the game and acquiring skills he entered his first tournament on by Ron Bowers at the ng as a 4 he teamed up with Lilly Kidd to win 3rd place and also won some sponsor sale money. Jack says, . Jack soon started thinking of having a major tournament in Houston. In the meantime Jack had become acquainted with many of the Pros who were playing at Franks and convinced them to come and try out Danny's Sports Bar. Asked, anny'so Danny's so he wouldn't have to drive so far, but Danny turned out to be a great promoter and player himself. It was the best move they could have made. Danny's remains the place where the Pros meet to this day.

The Houston Holiday Open

Jack was still formulating his thinking about a major tournament in Houston. He recalls nament setting at a nice hotel with the actual play in a grand hotel ballroom between Christmas and New Years was a perfect time for the event. There were no other tournaments and it was a time when many players were already taking off work. Hotels were slow during the holidays and he figured he could negotiate better rates for player's rooms and the ballroom. He spoke to many of the Pros but could get no solid support. It just so happens, there had been a previous Houston Tournament where the promoter had lost all the money in a poker game and the players all left empty handed. Even with this stigma, Jack being the Finally he and Johnny Ballard came to terms and decided to promote the 1st Houston Holiday Open at Danny's in 1996 on 7 boards. With help from Danny Norris, Diana Hagen, Bill Rice, Dickey Wooten and Johnny B the first Houston Holiday Open was a success. After the first year, Jack and Johnny followed the original concept and moved to the Hilton Inn on the Southwest Freeway. At this location, the tournament grew from 7 to 12 and then 14 boards supplied by Replay of Houston and Don Crall of Oklahoma City. The tournament was then moved to a larger ballroom at the Marriott North of Houston, as the tournament grew to 16 and then 18 boards. During this time Champions began to provide as many as 24 boards to the tournament with additional boards by Replay. As the attendance reached 200+ and the board count increased to 33 boards, the tournament was moved to the Sheraton Brookhollow Hotel where it stayed for the last 4 years. In 2005 the tournament moved to the Marriott By the Galleria. Today the Houston Holiday Open is considered to be one of the top three major tournaments in the country.

After the 2nd Holiday Open at the Hilton ended on December 30th, they couldn't get the boards moved until Jan 1. Jack and Johnny took $250 and all the leftovers the hotel would offer and had a makeshift New Years Eve Party. This was the beginning of the now famous Holiday Open New Years Eve Party. The men dress up and the ladies dawn their new dresses. The music begins, the dancing starts and one of the truest nights of shuffleboard camaraderie comes to life. It is a very unique shuffleboard experience.

The Memorial Open

Jack started the Memorial Open at Danny's Sports Bar with 8 boards in 2000. The tournament was originally designed for players from Houston and the Texas Oklahoma region. It was 3 days long with 8 events. The tournament was successful and grew to around 75 players each year. In 2004 Jack added handicapped events. He promoted the tournament heavily to 3s and 4s and players that normally do not attend tournaments. He increased the number of boards to 13 with the addition of Triple Crown Sports Bar. The tournament has now grown to 120 players with many of the new players willing to play in this and other tournaments.

Fun Hangers League

In the early years of the Houston Fun Hangers League, Jack was elected Vice President. He was instrumental in convincing the league to adopt the handicapped format for its games. This has been a key factor in the league's success and membership growth. Jack has continued to hold Officer Positions in the League and has held the position as President since 2002. He has influenced many new sponsor locations to join the league and continually promotes the league and local tournaments to new players.
